

RUTGERS FOOTBALL PRACTICE COMPLEX

As part of the “R Big Ten Build” targeted campaign, Rutgers Athletics announced its plan for a complete, top-to-bottom renovation of the existing football practice field complex. The project, slated to begin this spring and completed on Aug. 1, 2017, was made possible through a generous gift from Jeff and Amy Towers.

The upgraded practice complex will feature two new grass fields; complete with rebuilt drainage and a new irrigation system as well as a state-of-the-art LED lighting system. New football goal posts and two permanent film towers will be constructed in the complex along with a new video board, two scoreboards and six game clocks. A 3,000 square foot storage unit, new maintenance equipment and permanent restrooms are also included in the upgrades. In addition to the functional improvements, the practice complex will also undergo several aesthetical changes, including a new entrance way, fencing around the perimeter and redesigned landscaping throughout the facility.
